Singapore, 26 September 2013 – Dubbed as “Monaco of Asia”, this year saw Singapore hosting its unique Formula One Singapore Grand Prix night race for the 6th time since 2008 over the weekend from 20 – 22 Sept 2013. It was a weekend filled with excitement as Radar Tires and its guests witnessed Sebastian Vettel raced to a commanding victory at the Formula One Singapore Grand Prix.

For the first time this year, Radar Tires had their own Radar-themed hospitality suite over the 3 days of the event. Radar Tires’ management had the opportunity to catch up with supportive customers and partners and also show their appreciation.

The hospitality suite was generously decorated with various Radar-branded imageries and liveries. To heighten up the whole Racing mood, we also took the opportunity to celebrate our wins at the Baja500 and LOORS.

The guests, partners and staffs were also invited to indulge in a delectable buffet-style dinner and an assortment of wines and cocktail concoctions.

The 3-day Formula One Singapore Grand Prix ended with many positive feedbacks from the guests, partners and staffs. Radar Tires would like to thank all supportive guests, partners and staffs for their time and effort to attend the event and we look forward to hosting the upcoming events in the future.
